

Order of the Secret Monitor of Canada.
Constitutional Changes made in 2015 to 2012 Constitution.

Article 52.1, of the constitution which reads:

52.1 Every application to form a new Conclave must be by Petition to The Grand Supreme Ruler on the printed form obtainable on application to the Grand Recorder (See Appendix 1) signed by at least seven subscribing members of the Order registered under these Constitutions and Regulations, and specifying the proposed name of the Conclave, the place where and times when it is intended to meet, the names of the brethren proposed for the first Supreme Ruler, Counsellor and Guide, and the names and numbers of the Conclaves and Craft Lodges of which the petitioners are subscribing members.

Be amended to read:

52.1 Every application to form a new Conclave must be by Petition to the Grand Supreme Ruler on the printed form obtainable on application to the Grand Recorder (See appendix 1) signed by at least three subscribing members of the Order registered under these Constitutions and Regulations and four Master Masons registered under the Grand Lodge, recognized by this Grand Conclave. The application shall specify the proposed name of the Conclave, the place where and the times when it is intended to meet, the names of the brethren proposed for the first Supreme Ruler, Counsellor and Guide, and the names and numbers of the Conclave, if applicable, and Craft Lodges of which the petitioners are subscribing members.

Explanation: To make it less restrictive for the formation of new Conclaves!
